

Europe's top hotels for families

From Cornwall to Croatia, we pick 20 great stays from Mr & Mrs Smith's new family collection

British Isles

1 No 5 Maddox Street

London

This quiet collection of self-catering apartments off Regent Street may have grown-up, understated decor but they are stocked with every child accoutrement from bibs to baby monitors. The two and three-bedroom suites are made for families. Food-stocked kitchens, restaurant delivery services, daily housekeeping, a library of DVDs for all ages, 24-hour concierge, babysitting services and membership to a local gym are part of the deal.

Details From £234 room only (020-7647 0200, no5maddoxstreet.com). Cots can be added to the room free of charge.